18 teams of K-pop artists to dazzle the Jamboree's grand finale

MCST unveils the artist lineup for the 2023 World Scout Jamboree K-pop Super Live

The 2023 Saemangeum World Scout Jamboree Organizing Committee (Organizing Committee) and the Ministry of Culture, Sports, and Tourism (MCST) announced on August 9 (Wed) that top K-pop artists will take the stage in the K-pop Super Live concert scheduled for the evening of the 11th (Fri) at Seoul World Cup Stadium.

MCST Minister PARK Bo Gyoon said, "The lineup of 18 teams set to perform on the K-pop Super Live stage has been finalized. These top-tier artists will showcase the essence and allure of K-culture in a mesmerizing concert that will unite over 40,000 enthusiastic youth Scouts from more than 150 countries around the world."

The 18 artists participating in K-pop Super Live include NewJeans, NCT DREAM, ITZY, MAMAMOO, THE BOYZ, SHOWNU X HYUNGWON, KANGDANIEL, KWON EUN BI, JO YURI, P1Harmony, KARD, THE NEW SIX, ATBO, xikers, Holybang, and Libelante. The performance will be hosted by the talented actors GONG Myoung, ITZY's YUNA, and NewJeans' Hyein.

The closing ceremony will take place from 5:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. before the start of the performance.
